There is a magic in the memory of

Benjamin Disraeli

... Don't you feel the day is coming that you will stay and remain.
When your children see the answers that you saw the same
When the clouds have all gone, there will be no more rain and the beauty of all things is uncovered again.

And we all know it's better yesterday has past.

Now, let's all start the living for the one that's going to last.

Cat Stevens

Lao-tse

Simon & Garfunkel

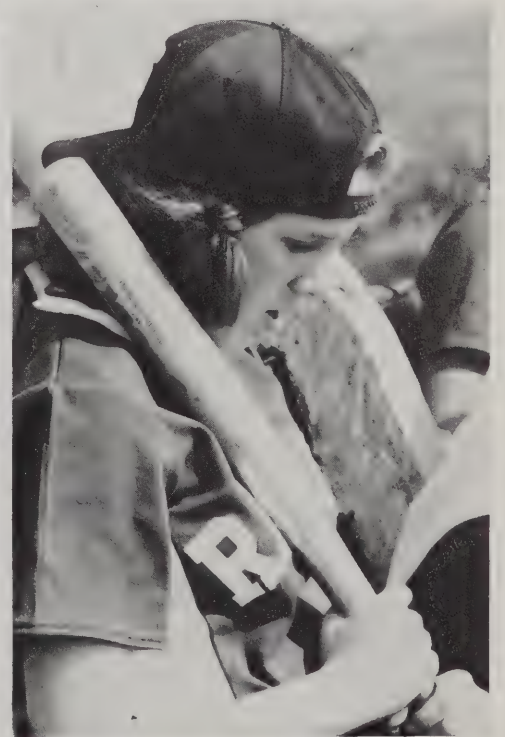

Old days, good times I remember,
 Gold days, days I'll always treasure
 Funny faces, full of love and laughter, Funny places, summer nights and streetcars take me back to a world gone away
 Memories seem like yesterday.

Old days, on my mind and in my heart to stay.
 Old days, darkened dreams of good times gone away.
 Old days, days of love and feeling fancy free.
 Old days, days of magic still so close to me.

An everlasting vision of the everchanging view ...

Seniors To Bid Farewell

September 3, 1980, was the first of many memorable dates for the Senior Class. On this day, the 1979-1980 Junior Class officially became the 1981 Senior Class.

In 1978, approximately 600 freshman students enrolled in the High School of Commerce. In 1979, over 400 of these students returned for their junior year. This year, approximately 350 students entered their senior year at Commerce.

In the Senior Class elections Anna Guarna was elected president, Christine Brown, vice-president, and Celeste Green as secretary.

LOOKING BACKWARD

Graduation—a time to look forward and a time to look backward. Three years ago six hundred fifty-four native students entered the High School of Commerce.

We suddenly became aware of the many elements which our new surroundings offered us. In November the first of three class elections was held. Elected to office were Domenic Sarno, president; Christine Brown, vice-president; and Celeste Green, secretary. Also elected were the Student Council and Homeroom Representatives. To promote the school spirit, we sold carnations on various occasions. The days passed swiftly and by the end of the year the strangeness of the school wore off. We were now veterans awaiting the challenges of our junior year. In September of 1979, we re-entered, five hundred thirty-one strong, for our second year.

From anyone's point of view it could be seen that we were proud to be juniors. Our hands became the most important part of our bodies as we flashed our class rings at each other. As the revival of disco music, so was the revival of our junior class officers.

The second class election voted in the previous officers again, Domenic Sarno, president; Christine Brown, vice-president; Celeste Green, secretary. Again a flower sale was held to brighten the halls of the school, but as juniors we graduated to selling roses. Our senior year marked the beginning of the end. In September, 1980, four hundred forty expectant seniors marched into Commerce with visions of the future pressed anxiously in their minds. The excitement began the very first day as we proudly sat in the senior section of the auditorium with our hats as crowns placed high upon our heads. For the first time a new point of view was brought forth when the senior election voted Anna Guarna, president; Christine Brown, vice-president; and Celeste Green, secretary. Then on to commencement! A commencement is a beginning, but before this beginning, the school year needed to end. Our final day at Commerce, Class Day, was held on May 15, 1981. This marked the beginning of the spectacular senior festivities. Our banquet was held on May 13, at the Greek Cultural Center. We attended our traditional senior prom on May 20. It was also held at the Greek Cultural Center. Reigning as queen was Cheryl Bass, and her lovely court was Rhonda Gaudreau, Louisa Diaz, Georgetta Correia and Minerva Irizarry. In all it was a beautiful night. We graduated on June 2, 1981, at the Springfield Civic Center. And, so it is said, from great endings come great beginnings!

Every blade in the field
Every leaf in the forest
Lays down its life in its season
As beautifully as it was taken up

Ernest L. Conchieri

Mr. Ernest Conchieri devoted 26 years of his life to teaching at Commerce. He was both a teacher and a close friend to all of his students. Mr. Conchieri took a little of all of us with him, but he left each of us with our memories.

Respect Once Again

The Red Raiders "door mat" years are over! The Raiders, under the direction of Coach Dougal and Asst. Coach Wroblewski, stole out to a 4-1 start. Unfortunately, due to city difficulties, injuries and morale, the season record of 6-9 seemed sub-par. Instead, the exciting, but unpredictable, Raiders stunned perennial powerhouse Tech 3-2, dumped WM Division III Champ St. Mary's 17-7, and also gave talent-laden Cathedral a run for its money in a nip and tuck 9-8 loss.

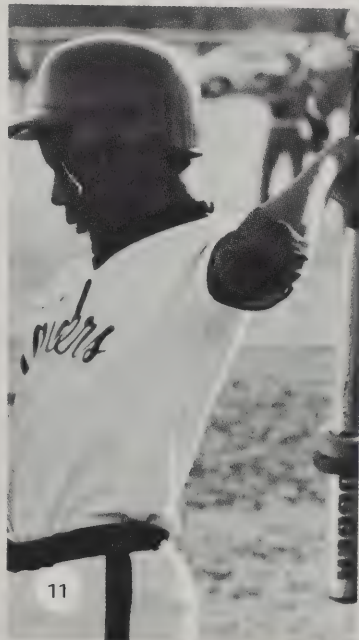

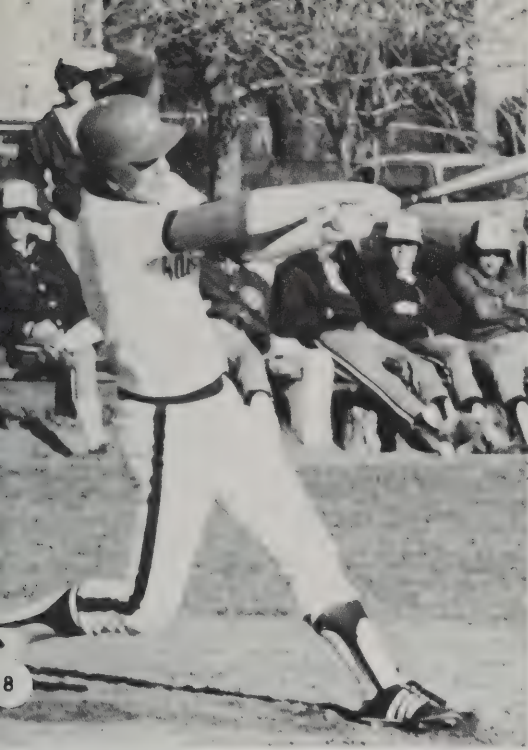

Strong seasons were had by Juan Rois who pitched the distance in the Tech victory, Co Captains Domenic Sarno (All-City selection), John Calabrese (RBI Leader), and Mark Brown (dramatic game-winning homer vs. Tech).

Commerce is looking forward to this season with its new field, new league and new uniforms as a CONTENDER.

1. Mark Brown puts the Raiders on the score board. 2. John (Goose) Calabrese fires the number one. 3. Catcher Domenic readies to complete the double play. 4. Outfielders Genus Wilson and Ivan Cordona converge to make the play. 5. Shortstop Kris Owens fires to 1st. 6. Base hit via Domenic Sarno. 7. Steal is on; Dom Sarno is after this theft. 8. John Calabrese with a long drive. 9. Speedster Mark Brown goes for two. 10. On the run: Ivan Cordona. 11. Genus Wilson limbers upon deck. 12. Crafty Juan Rois delivers the curve. 13. Dead to rights, Mark Brown and John Calabrese cut this runner down. 14. Shortstop Matt Austin smoothly to first. 15. Walt Dougal prepares the starting line-up.

Fleet On Their Feet

The Boys Track Team under second-year mentor, John Guerra, ran into hardships. As Guerra stated, "The season was successful for the time it lasted." He also agreed that if able to finish the season it would have been a success. This year's team standouts, Ron Brace, Greg Dewberry, and Frank Gonzalez, were described by Guerra as, "Super athletes" and "Strong in their events."

1. Ron Brace and Tyrone Nulls set the pace. 2. Determination; Frank Gonzalez. 3. Light as air; Alfred Winning tradition; Frank Gonzalez and Frank Morales. 6. Wayne Johnson: up and over. 7. Coach Guerra checks things over.

Strike! Strikes Two

The Commerce Girl Tracksters launched their 1980 season with a defeat over West Side and Holyoke 64-35 and a defeat to East Longmeadow 75-44. The season then came to a sudden halt because of the teachers strike. Commerce's first-ever pentathletes, Annette Wilson and Karen Brown, placed second and third at the Longmeadow High Pentathlon. Annette and Karen, with Debbie Guy, then went to Boston for the State Pentathlon.

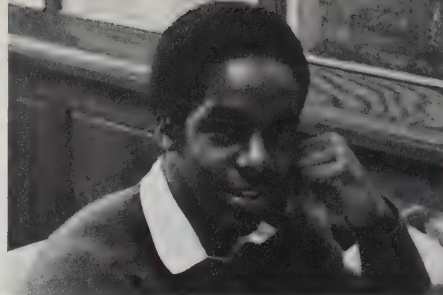

On the fairway Commerce fared well. Commerce's Golf Team won 6 and lost 1. Last season's pitch and puck experts were Richard Berthiaume, Scott MacDonald, Kevin Sheehan, and Patricia Shepard. Coach Conchieri hopes for more future participation.

1. Sharon Smith, Annette Wilson, Debra Guy, Edna White, Jean Provost, Cynthia Jackson, and Karen Brown pose with beautiful flowers. 2. Paulette Craig, Debbie Guy, Karen Brown, Annette Wilson, Lisa Miller, Debbie Mort, and Edna White pose for "Miss Athletic." 3. Annette Wilson and Sharon Smith dare you to touch them. 4. Linda Merriweather, Annette Wilson, Karen Brown, and Cynthia Jackson are convicted of stealing a hurdle. 5. Scott MacDonald follows through.

Highlighted Athletes

Debra Guy and Greg Dewberry have been chosen as outstanding tracksters at the High School of Commerce.

Debra and Greg have been running since elementary school. Deb has been running for six years and Greg for nine. When asked about their idols both chose Jessie Owens.

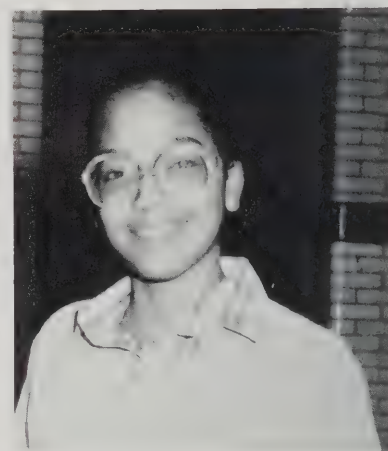

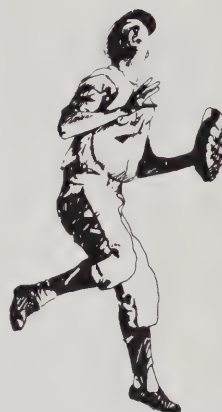

Next year Debra Guy plans to go on to college; her intended major is physical education and she plans to minor in Spanish. Greg Dewberry also plans to go on to college. He would like to go into computers at STCC.

Our outstanding soccer players were Annette Wilson and Angel Falcon. Angel has been playing soccer for four years. Annette became interested in playing when a friend asked her to try out.

When asked about team spirit, Annette and Angel both thought that the team spirit was definitely there. Angel felt that it was one reason why the boys team did so well. Annette felt that school support is also an important factor in a team's performance; she hopes that there will be more of it in the future.

Celeste Miller was cited for her softball abilities. Celeste seriously started to play softball in her freshman year. She has received two varsity C's for her efforts on Commerce's softball team. Celeste is also good in other sports. She was top scorer for the Commerce girls basketball team; as well, she had a successful season as a track team member.

Celeste plans to go on to college; she would like to get into the field of medical technology.

The two highlighted basketball players were Karen Brown and Jimmy Collins. Karen Brown was top rebounder for the girl's team. Jimmy Collins was also top rebounder and was one of the top scorers on the boys team. Jimmy Collins was chosen many times by the Springfield Daily News as player of the week. Karen also ran track. She participated at Western Mass in track and field in her junior and freshman years. When asked about fan support, Karen felt that there should be more of it.

The Caduceus staff would like to extend its sincere congratulations to all of these athletes.

Raiders Down Gaels

During the 1980 Commerce Girls Softball season, 19 games had been scheduled but only six were played. The Commerce sluggers won two of the six games. Coach Greenleaf said, "The strike hindered the girls outdoor practice."

Jerri Meuse, Celeste Miller, Valerie Balsom and Maria D'Angelantonio were all outstanding players on the team. Coach Greenleaf commented that Jerri Meuse was a potential All Western Mass pitcher. Valerie Balsom was named outstanding catcher, Maria D'Angelantonio was terrific at third base, and Celeste Miller was a super second baseman and shortstop.

1. Commerce getting up the spirit. 2. Maria D'Angelantonio hits that one out of the park. 3. Celeste Miller powers the ball to home plate. 4. Jerri Meuse puts everything behind this swing. 5. Let's hope the batter is ready for Kim Jensen's pitch. 6. Ann Cummings tries for a fast get away. 7. Donna Nicholas keeps a good eye on her opponent. 8. Valerie Balsom gets ready to send the ball to second base.

Gridmen Strike Winning Season

The 1980 football season was an improved one for Commerce, coached by Mr. Sumcizk, Mr. Albano, and Mr. Olejarz. The Raiders posted a winning season with four wins, three losses and one tie. The most impressive victory of the season was a 36-0 romp over Pioneer.

Twelve players returned for the 1980 football season. Harold "Junior" Robinson, Terry Eaddy, Mark Glenn, Jeffery Clemons and Mark Smith were all sparkling assets to the starting lineup.

Booters Improve

The High School of Commerce Soccer Team had an outstanding year. The players' morale was very high, which enabled the girls to compete in a higher league. Ms. Masucci quotes, "If more students participate the game of soccer will be healthy in years to come."

The future of the team is good if the practices begin before the school season begins. Then the girls soccer team could take over the league. The most outstanding player was Annette Wilson, senior, who was also the captain of the team.

1. It's two against one. 2. L. Ferrar keeps a watchful eye. 3. J. Ellis feels six feet tall. 4. J. Ellis will punch the ball. 5. Get out there girls and work! 6. E. Ryan takes over. 7. S. # Shooting For The Victory

The 1981 basketball season was off and running to a great start. This year's Western Mass. champs, the team experienced a season coupled with success and frustration in many close contests.

Coach Martin named Verman Brown as the M.V.P. of the season. Other outstanding players were Wayne Hicks, Jimmy Collins, John Roberson, Bruce Goolsby, Joe Baidy, Chris Pugh and Will Rivera.

When asked about his personal feelings about coaching, Mr. Martin said, "I love it; it's a tremendous opportunity to help kids."

Girls Rebound Off Tough Start

The Girls Basketball Team bounced back from stiff competition early in the season to bite and claw their way to victory later on. The Red Raiders, coached by Ms. Robin Timothy, utilized the fast break, which proved to be an effective tool on the court. The crucial game that turned the season around was a 51 to 31 win over Classical.

Aggressive play dominated the team, especially through certain team standouts. The rebounding of Karen Brown, the shooting and passing of Annette Wilson, and the driving ability of Celeste Scott on the fast break were all key factors. Add to this the ball handling ability of Celeste Miller and the outstanding utility play of Debra Guy and the results could only be success. Hopefully, the team can recapture this finishing momentum when next year's season begins.

1. K. Brown jumps higher . . . 2. C. Miller takes a shot. 3. and higher. 4. D. Best gets the rebound. 5. Ms. Timothy talks to the team. 6. D. Slocumb blocks. 7. D. Guy knows a way out. 8. D. # Off'n Rollin'

This year's bowling team was off and rolling. Most of the team were beginners, according to Mr. Ellison. At the end of the first round, Commerce had not won any games. No one ever became discouraged, however. There were no quitters on this team.

1. Kenny Steptoe, one of America's future greats. 2. Who's winning? 3. Wesley Long, a serious bowler. 4. Donald Smith rolls it straight up the middle. 5. Darryl Jones. 6. Hector Bedard. 7. # At The Helm

The High School of Commerce Administration is a finely tuned machine. At the helm are Principal Gene F. Basili and co-pilots John Troy, John Coleman, and Gladys Midura. Together, they perform the complex tasks of decision-making, disciplining, and supervising all school activity. Each administrator has a specific role which helps direct students and teacher in the right direction. Together, the administration has seen many changes and expects to meet more challenges.

Taking Time To Share

The Guidance Department is a very helpful one in assisting students with the present as well as the future. Students are informed to go to these counselors for guidance with a program change, for special school assistance, and for information for their future program of studies, Mr. Serafino's specialty.

This year a new face was added to the Guidance Department, Mrs. Antonietta DiMichele, who was a former Commerce graduate. She received the opportunity of taking Miss Zajchowski's place upon her retirement.

The department doesn't have to worry about a boring school year because the students will keep them very busy.

If you have plans to travel to Spain or France one day, the French and Spanish classes can offer you the opportunity to learn the language and culture of these countries.

Special events in these courses included a canned food collection for the Salvation Army by Miss Burlow's French classes. Miss Hogan's Spanish classes kept busy with elections for president, governor and mayor, and a debating session on the topic of Proposition 2½.

A Special Few

The school wouldn't function properly without the special services of a certain few. Our office workers, teachers' aides, cooks, janitors, and matrons all play an important part throughout the school year. This year student teachers Mr. Varzeas and Mrs. Richardson had a chance to teach and observe classes. We wish these bright new teachers success in the future.

Studying Changes

The Social Studies Department, which studies people in their environments, includes psychology, sociology, geography, and American history. This year Miss Kalloch's classes made in-depth comparisons with the past and present.

There was a bit of excitement over this year's election. Republican candidate Ronald Reagan beat incumbent Jimmy Carter by a landslide. There were also class discussions concerning the crisis in the Middle-East and in the natural disasters occurring.

They Play The Numbers

The classes this year, as in all years, are working hard at their studies. One of the hardest and most important classes is mathematics. Mr LaFlamme is the head of the Math Department which offers the courses of algebra, geometry, and trigonometry. It takes a great deal of work, time and endurance to succeed in these subjects, but students have the opportunity to take such classes and become the "master-minds" of the school.

Normand LaFlamme

Jean Watson

What is the Academic Intervention Center? This is for students who are suspended from school and are not sent home. Instead, they report to a class of which Mr. D'Agostino is in charge. Students who are sent to his class are not allowed to talk and are allowed only one break during the day. They must bring their own lunch to school (oh, how they'll miss the school's). Those who have been to this class usually don't want to return.

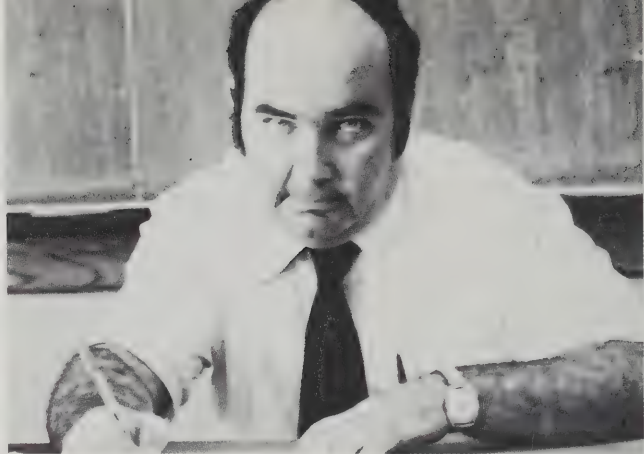

1. Paul Lessard finishes his homework while on patrol duty. 2. Florence Driscoll looks up in time for the picture. 3. Julie Wimbish sits back and relaxes in her class. 4. Mr. Tenczar and Carol Christie join the others at the computer. 5. Miguel Pagan studies his hardest. 6. Marcella Williams and her sister take time out for a special photo. 7. Sandy Martin finds a humorous book in the library. 8. The best of friends.

In Business

Commerce has long had a reputation as a fine business school. Specific courses are stenography, typing, accounting, filing, duplicating, and machine calculation. Fortunately, a highly skilled faculty and modern equipment have combined to give students the best possible head start into the business world.

The Essential Elements

This year's Science Department here at Commerce had a full schedule. The students started by learning the many different bones which compose the human skeleton. They also learned about internal organs of the body. Freshman classes were able to view different specimens under the microscope. Some classes experimented with different chemicals and discovered their reactions. The students in Mr. Trespas' classes learned much from the many movies he showed. It proved to be an "experimenting" year for the science students.

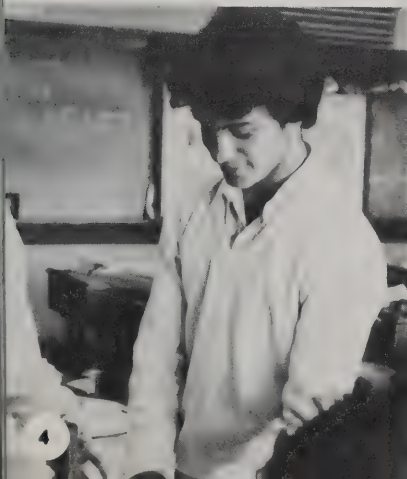

Henry Trespas

Leonard Notaro

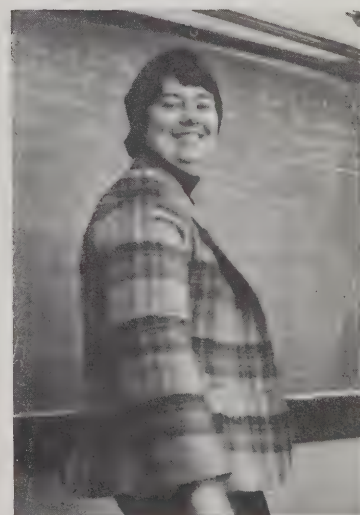

1. Rosemary tries her best to focus in on her paramecium. 2. Pointing out to the class special skeletal bones. 3. It's frustrating work trying to find something on these slides. 4. Edwin Caban carefully prepares himself for his microscope work.

Miss Rosemary Kalloch, a devoted history teacher at Commerce, is the daughter of a former soccer coach whose name reached the Soccer Hall of Fame. Her family roots have been traced to Tris Kalloch, who founded a town and established a college in the West. Miss Kalloch's private life is filled with such pastimes as tennis, photography, and especially toad paraphernalia. She has more than 1,000 toad articles in a special room of which she is very proud.

Rosemary Kalloch, is a very active woman with many interests, but her love for teaching comes first.

Keeping Fit

Among their classes at Commerce, the students seem to enjoy gym the most. There are many activities from which to choose. Some go skating, some go bowling, and others play volleyball or basketball. All students are now waiting to be able to use the school's new field.

The Beat Is Better

The Music Department here at the High School of Commerce started the year with a new music director, Miss Jean Gunther. The department consists of the Concert Choir, the Girls Ensemble, the Freshman Chorus and the Band.

The Concert Choir was asked to perform at the Storrowtown Theatre and also at the Holyoke Mall. The Girls Ensemble along with the Freshman Chorus sang at various shopping centers.

If you don't know anything about traveling, the one to ask is Rita Astorino, one of our biology teachers. She has traveled to many Middle East countries, Mexico, Caribbean Islands, Columbia, and Venezuela. While visiting these places, she enjoys sport fishing (for sailfish), dolphins and barracudas. She also collects sea life so she can show her students. In the future she would like to travel and explore Peru and Brazil. Certainly, Mrs. Astorino has left few parts of the world unexplored.

The Visual Image

The art classes kept themselves busy with many special activities. Among these activities were the painting of a MacDonald's window and a trip to the Swam School of Art in New Bedford, Mass. The trip was special for the students because they brought their personal portfolios and were able to show their work to art school critics. The art classes then went on to draw self-portraits. These students had a great exposure to many art environments and mediums throughout the year.

Sensible Home Planning

This year the Home Economics Department kept its students busy. In the child development classes, the students learned how to care for babies and diaper them properly. They also cared for eggs for a week, pretending they were babies. Mrs. Arnold kept her interior design class busy with dried flower arrangements. The freshmen were themselves eager to sew as well as cook.

An added member to the department is Mrs. Jordan. Mrs. Jordan enjoys teaching at Commerce and Commerce enjoys having her on the faculty.

In addition, he follows professional hockey; he traveled to Montreal during the past hockey season to watch the Canadiens. He feels it is a joy to work at a school where the faculty and students are so pleasant and helpful.

Miss Robin Timothy is a new addition to the Physical Education Department. She is a graduate of Plymouth State College where she received a B.S. in Physical Education. She enjoys all sports and coaching the basketball team. Being an alumna of Commerce, she feels that it's still the best school around.

Mr. Leonard Roy is a new bilingual teacher. Mr. Roy is a graduate of St. Francis College, Assumption College, and the University of Mass. His interesting hobby is researching geneologies. She is a graduate of Rhode Island School of Design where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree and Springfield College for her Master of Education. She enjoys hobbies such as sports, music, travel, and fine arts. She has traveled to England, France, Germany, Italy and other places outside of USA. She feels it is gratifying to be working with smaller classes and older students.

Miss Jean Gunther along with the freshmen, started her first year at Commerce this year. She attended the University of Conn. and plans to achieve her masters in music there. Before she leaves her students, she would like to point out to them that each person is special and they can set their goals and work for them.

Mr. Matthew Peck, a bilingual teacher, is a graduate of the Univ. of Bridgeport. He loves sports; especially soccer and hockey. He was the varsity soccer coach for the past two years at AIC. For three years, Mr. Peck lived in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and taught history there. He has also traveled through the Caribbean and in many countries in South and Central America. Mr. Peck enjoys Commerce very much and considers the students to be nice and friendly.

Mrs. Velma Jordan, the new home ec. teacher, transferred from Classical. She is an energetic woman, who was born and educated in North Carolina, graduating from N.C. University. She has traveled to the Caribbean Islands and hopes to visit Europe someday soon.

Mrs. Christine Devlin, has replaced Mr. Corcoran in the English Department. She graduated from Westfield State College. She enjoys hobbies as reading, knitting, and especially taking care of her baby daughter. She has traveled many times to Montreal and Quebec City. She feels it is a real pleasure teaching here at Commerce.

They're Working Over-Time!

Where do the Commerce students go after school? You can find some at McDonald's, Burger King, or Baystate West. But you can find the majority of them hard at work at their part-time jobs. The following pictures demonstrate the varied jobs which Commerce students perform. These ambitious students can be found doing anything from washing dishes to taking pictures.

1. Michael cooks "Big Macs". 2. Cedric makes a sale at Tom McAn. 3. Cynthia cooks at Geri-Care. 4. Renee keeps clean at City Cleaners 5. At the School Dept., Debbie works standing . . . 6. but Maria prefers sitting. 7. Sue smiles at Caldor's jewelry counter. 8. Marita cares for those at Geri-Care. 9. Edwin, Annamarie, and Wendy together at Orange Julius. 10. Tony clears the grill at Burger King. 11. Mark, behind the scenes at New England Sea Grill. 12. Susan is hard at work. 13. Linda typing at Gage-Wiley. 14. Domingo at Kim and Lee. 15. Darren soaks the dishes at Beefsteak Charlie's. 16. Julie points to her friend. 17. Yolanda at Paul's Pizza. 18. Lesenia calls for the next meal.

Smile!!

The Caduceus staff owes a great deal to Tim Lynch and Thelma Hicks who have been this year's student photographers. They have industriously done quality work filled with imagination.

Thanks Tim and Thelma!

Balancing The Big Figures

In order to be one of the G.O. accountants in 113, students must have an A or B average. They must be recommended by their teacher and approved by the administration.

The students are responsible for monies collected for G.O., Senior Activities and Caduceus. They prepare lists for distribution of caps and gowns and Caduceus. All collections are, hopefully, proven and balanced monthly.

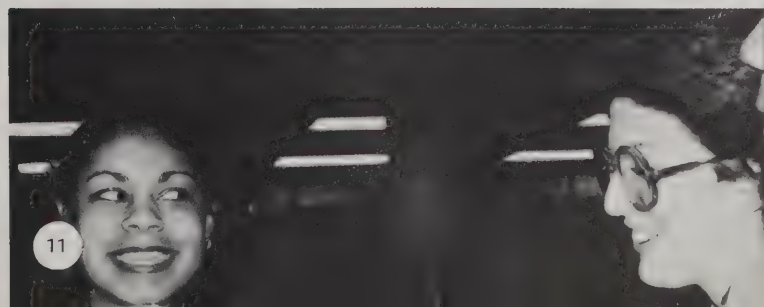

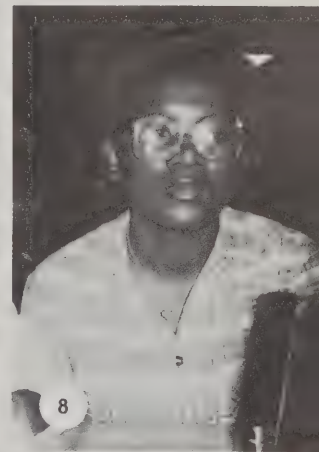

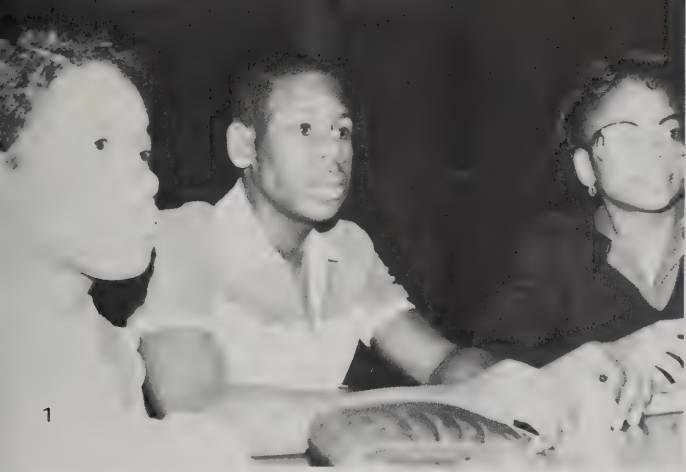

1. Sandra Manley receives money from Celeste Scott and Marcella Johnson. 2. Anna Waldron writes out a receipt. 3. G. O. material. 4. Debbie Mort filing index cards. 5. Carol Christie pretending to work! 6. Maria Pereira and Maria Becerra tally up the figures. 7. Maria Candelaria, hard at work! 8. Evelyn Falcon and Justine Jodoin are putting up G. O. progress posters. 9. Georgetta and Sandra. 10. Anna and Bea attempt to balance G. O. 11. Sandra does some last minute work. 12. Marcella Johnson and Karen Brown, filing. 13. Karin Maagero, counting the cash!!

Politically Active

At the beginning of the school year, the High School of Commerce held its annual elections. Among the activities planned were carnation sales, Toy for Joy, and a canned goods collection. Hopefully, school participation in these activities will persist in the future.

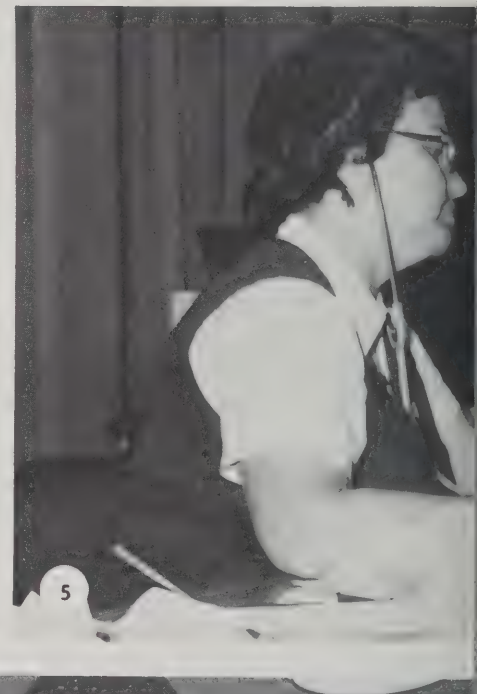

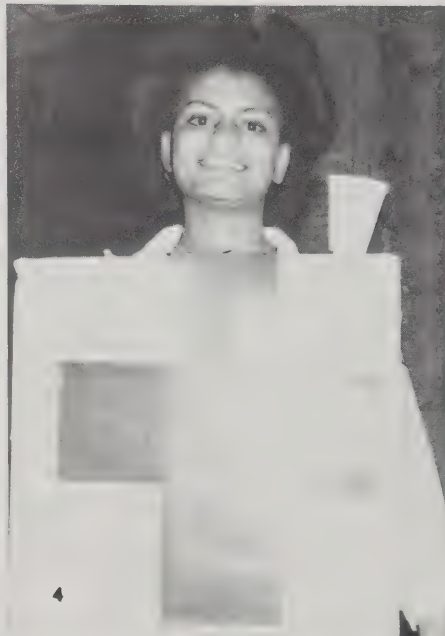

1. Chris, Chuckie, and Celeste pay close attention. 2. Class of '83 Pres., S. Pabon. 3. K. Stillwell, S. Pabon, M. Pomales, and A. Maldonado. 4. Tina and Marisol of the Class of '83. 5. A. Maldonado, freshman v. pres. 6. C. Rosa and R. Hamilton. 7. The Student Council at work. 8. C. Jackson. 9. L. Vigneault. 10. Junior Class sec. M. Hayes and v. pres. D. Alli. 11. B. Miller and senior pres. A. Guarna.

From The Heart

The Bloodmobile is usually conducted twice a year at Commerce. This year, during the fall, student donors gave a total of 61 pints of blood. In the past people were paid to donate blood, but the Red Cross has found that high school students have become a major source of donors.

Unlike other high schools, Commerce's students assume total responsibility in seeking donors, typing information and getting people for their staff. The Red Cross is very complimentary about Commerce students. They are continually amazed by their cooperation and efficiency.

1. Muriel Steptoe poses near the Bloodmobile equipment. 2. Lisa Shaw and Shawna Brace look over papers. 3. Renee Lewis helps with the refreshments. 4. Elena Taveras models the latest mobile wear. 5. Tammy Hall doesn't look scared at all. 6. Gail Pilon waits patiently. 7. Terry Brooks and Sherry Williams work as members of the staff. 8. Zina Scott holds her blood donation. 9. Needles are ouchless to me! 10. Busy, Busy, Busy! 11. Monica Deuso closes her eyes when her turn comes. 12. Michael Robie and friends take a break. 13. Mia Milner looks like she would make a good secretary.

Coping

P.A.G.E. was started in 1969 for girls under 20 years of age who were pregnant. The Teachers Corps Organization and the Y.W.C.A. wanted girls to continue their education and understand their pregnancy.

P.A.G.E. is staffed by three full-time workers and two part-time workers. They also have vocational counselors to help the girls make decisions.

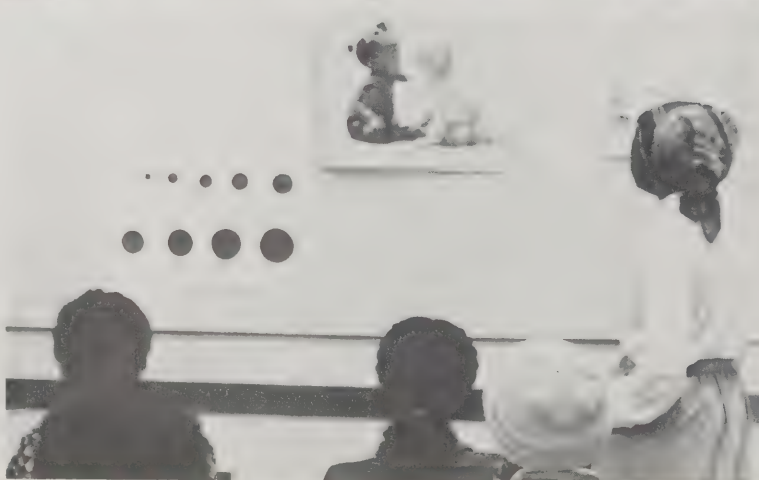

The girls are taught the academic and commercial subjects and also have health class twice a week.

The girls also can have private counseling for personal problems. They're given advice for facing their parents and for facing the responsibility. Seventy percent of the girls leave understanding their problem and learn that pregnancy is by choice.

P.A.G.E. is open to all members of the Springfield School system. The school has worked and the advisers would like to see an expanded program. Everyone is always welcome to go and obtain some free and honest information and advice.

1. P.A.G.E. — Pregnant Adolescent Girls Education.
2. Health class teaches infant care and nutrition. 3. Private counseling is given to the girls. 4. The bulletin board is for current events and city activities and notices. 5. Amina Ali is the director and Shirley Hudson is the head counselor at P.A.G.E. The school has enrolled about 1,000 girls and an average of 100 girls a year.

Artistic Dimensions

Beatles

The Beatles were the "Fabulous Four"
Until one day they were no more
The separate members were on their own
Each one developed a separate tone
McCartney with Wings
And Lennon with Ono
What each group sings
Comes out on phono
Ringo on drums and George on guitar
Their separate careers never went quite so far
Their memories lived on
In millions of heads
One sad night for John
His body shot with lead
The news struck a vein
As I lay on my bed
The suddenness of pain
"John Lennon is now dead"
His former mates shocked
By the news on the wire
No voices now talked
Hoping they were liars
But lives will go on ...
All except John's.

Mark Richardson

A Song I Heard

I listened to a song today
That made me think of you
It made me think of the hurt, the pain,
And my dream that didn't come true

It made me think of life itself
And how it must go on
It made me wish I was a wizard
That had a magic wand

It made me think of you the most
How much I love you so
The beautiful feeling I used to get
From my head down to my toes

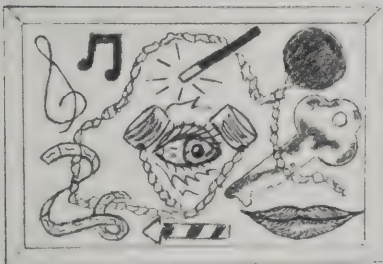

I could still get that feeling
If I had you with me
But just like you said before,
We should wait and see

I can't wait as long as you
It seems I'm not as strong,
It seems like some of the things we say
Sometimes come out wrong

When I hear that song again
I know I'll start to cry
I'll think about my love for you
And then I'll wonder why

At Close Range

THE AMUSEMENT PARK

A tiny world, unpenetrable by the outside,
Shielded by a dome of wonder and Adventure.
Flashing lights of every hue and music
Of a volume so high that its vibration
Is transmitted through the body.

Here, wishes are fulfilled and worries are Temporarily locked away.
The person within is anxious to be
Unchained and is now revealed.
You are alive and free.
Excited screams of fear and joy are accompanied
By your own meek voice.
Everywhere around you lies exploding energy.

The dome above has grown dark.
The blinking lights have ceased and
The music has silenced.
People unwillingly file out.
You are transformed to the image that
The outsiders know.
And your small world of fantasy is Drained of its magic.

Valerie Longworth

Therrix Brown, a junior here at Commerce, has been playing piano for eight years. He has composed a lot of his own music. Therrix hopes to continue his career in music by attending Julliard or Boston Conservatory. His ambition is to be a concert pianist. He enjoys classical as well as modern jazz and other types of music.

When asked what he would say to young people who would like to get into the music field, he quoted his favorite saying, "The trouble with opportunity is that it's disguised by hard work." Commerce looks forward to seeing Therrix performing at Carnegie Hall in the future.

Putting It All Together

The Caduceus editorial staff, under the direction of Miss Costa, and business staff, under the direction of Mr. Roy, have worked diligently on the 1981 yearbook sixth period every day.

The 1981 yearbook staff strove to achieve more artistic layouts. The editors-in-chief this year were Karin Maagero and Anna Guarna. Section editors were Karen Korp, Lisa Hachigian, and Marcella Williams. The number of pictures was expanded through the use of collages. "Perspectives" was the original theme created by the entire staff to signify the class of '81.

1. R. White goes over documents. 2. D. Habernern works on a layout. 3. S. Brown crops pictures. 4. A. Guarna acts busy. 5. M. Williams looks at a photo. 6. A. Guarna introduces the balloons to sign for end sheets. 7. C. Crawford made a mistake. 8. K. Korp looks at her papers. 9. K. Maagero plans for the yearbook. 10. M. Randall is happy to take a break. 11. K. Brown and R. Sepheus are double workers. 12. Miss Costa goes over final corrections. 13. L. Hachigian makes a mistake while typing a copy sheet which is not hers.

Headliners

The High School of Commerce Executive is advised by Miss DiSanti and editor by Jo-Ann Harrington. The Executive is issued every six weeks.

Miss DiSanti was very enthusiastic about the staff this year. Miss DiSanti is also looking forward to next year's staff, with some good people returning.

A journalism course is available in the junior year to learn the procedures of newspaper writing, layouts, and composition. Through the help of Miss DiSanti, the newspaper staff continues its fine work for the students. Miss DiSanti feels that next year will be a year of positive growth for the Executive staff.

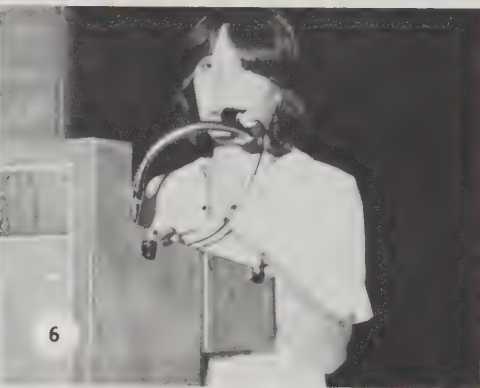

1. Miss DiSanti and J. Harrington correct manuscripts. 2. L. Chouinard reads over the latest issue. 3. C. Brown and V. Brown go over their copy. 4. N. Balise types out a story. 5. Miss DiSanti and J. # Top Earners

The Stanley O. Smith Chapter of the National Honor Society at the High School of Commerce is advised by Miss McCarthy and Miss DiSanti. On Sept. 30, 1980, 23 seniors and 31 juniors were inducted. Senior club officers were Karen Brown, president; Donna Thomas, vice president; Jackie Muldrow, secretary; and Marcella Williams, treasurer. Junior officers were Lisa Miller, president; Sandra Martin, vice president; Lori Nashville, secretary; and Sandra Brown, treasurer.

The National Honor Society initiated a tutoring system for any Commerce student requesting scholastic help. In addition to tutoring, Honor Society members, along with the Executive, run the school store. Profits from the store, with the membership dues and money from other fund-raisers, go to the National Honor Society Scholarship Fund. Some items sold in the store were pom-poms, '81 buttons and banners.

One Time Only Rally Special

Finally! What everyone had been waiting for! The first rally of the year was held January 1981 in honor of our basketball team. The screams and shouts of everyone filled the auditorium as the cheerleaders came down the aisles.

School spirit was once again revived by captain Donna Thomas and this year's cheerleading squad. Needless to say, a long awaited class competition was ended in a win for the seniors.

1. John Adams and Robert Ester tune out the sounds. 2. Shekina Elliot gives praise for the first rally. 3. Lorraine, Shawna, and Sharon get into the Commerce spirit. 4. "I don't know how long I can keep this up." 5. "Give me a C!" 6. Donna Thomas leads the raider cheers. 7. "We've got the spirit" 8. "Uhl Ungowal Raiders got the power!" 9. # A Comeback!

"A Drama Club? Never happen! The kids at this school don't want to work at anything."

Wrong! For the first time in years Commerce had a Drama Club. Seven students stuck it out while others quit. "The Most Happy Stella" was enjoyed by those who saw it. Hopefully, this club of seven has paved the way for a larger, more active club next year.

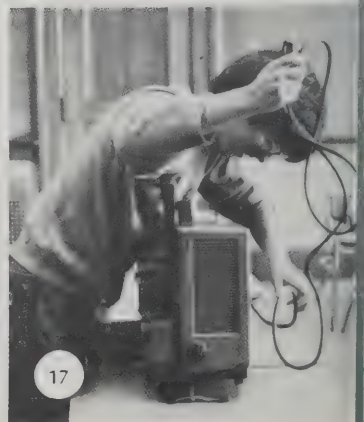

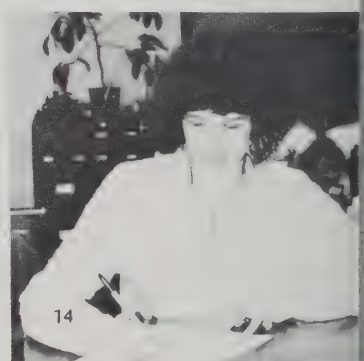

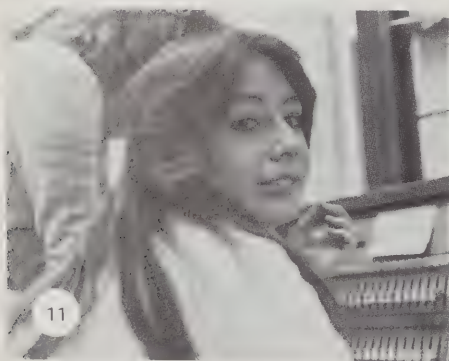

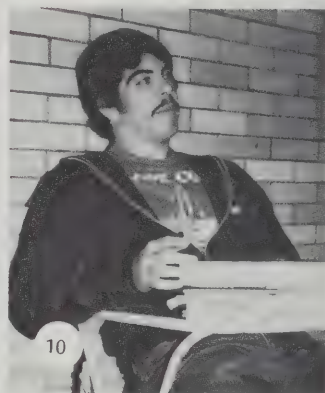

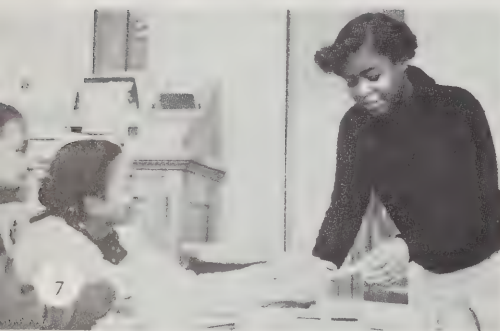

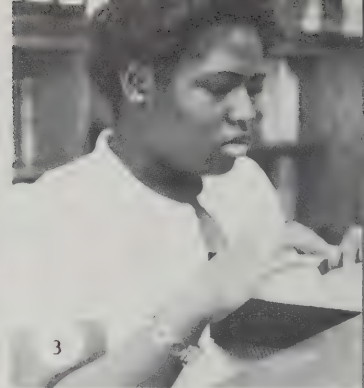

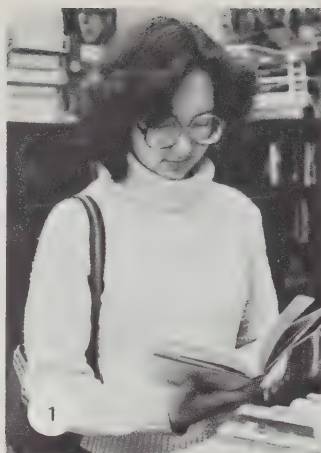

1. The leading ladies show their stuff. 2. Jim Seibles introduces the show. 3. Hubert Roque works on props. 4. Therrix Brown provides accompaniment. 5. The cast. 6. # Help Wanted

Commerce runs smoothly due to hard work by our student aides. These dedicated students help with typing and filing in the office, keep the AVA equipment in tip-top condition, guard our hallways, keep our cafeteria clean and aid students in the library. Commerce owes a lot to these special students.

1. Karen keeps books in order. 2. Mark plays repairman. 3. Shekina uses card catalog. 4. Cynthia is cashed in. 5. Gym leaders: J. Kazcynski, M. Thomas, D. Wells, M. Smith, P. Sparks, D. Smith, R. # Happenings

Though the High School of Commerce alone will someday cease to be, fashion itself will always be here. Students this year were more interested in designer wear, like those by Calvin Klein, Gloria Vanderbilt, Sasson, and Jor-dache.

Hairstyles were in from new cuts and rolls to geri-curls.

Let's hope future stu-dents will keep fashion up to date.

Dallas was a real hit with "Who shot J.R.?" Just about everyone was suspected from his wife down to his lawyer. This brought 6½ months of suspense before it was revealed who had done it.

There were movies that hit the screen that were big hits, like Airplane, Elephant Man, and The Empire Strikes Back with Yoda.

As for TV movies, thousand watched Shogun, which had the highest rating since Roots.

Exciting And Shocking

Many deaths shocked the people of 1980. The director of films who was known to millions was Alfred Hitchcock; also, comedian Jimmy Durante, George Raft, and Mae West. Two well known actors who died of heart attacks were Steve McQueen and Peter Sellers. Jesse Owens, a black track star who won 4 gold medals in the 1936 Olympics, also died. Others who died in 1980 were the Shah, eight servicemen who were rescuing the hostages in Iran, and Arthur C. Nielsen.

Many people will long remember John Lennon, an ex-Beatle, who was assassinated in New York City. His death was as shocking to the music world as Elvis Presley's had been.

Our new President Ronald Reagan. He has come a long way from an acting career to our President. He has made many decisions in his times and plans to make many more.

Our 52 hostages will long be remembered. We spent 1980 hoping for their safe return to the U.S.A. Flags and yellow ribbons were displayed in remembrance of them. The hostages were in Iran for over a year, and careful precautions were used to get them back home safely. Their return ironically competed with Mr. Reagan's inauguration for press coverage.

May the future be kind to our hostages in their struggles to recover from an unkind past.

1. Michael Edwards and Barbara Bradley show a touch of class. 2. A new cut for Catherine Spagnolo. 3. Carol Christie and Nancy Perez in their fashionable blouses and skirts. 4. Marcella Johnson shows off her hairstyle. 5. Hector Ramos in the casual look. 6. Darryl King in style.

Barbara Lis, one of the most creative students at leading Commerce, is interested in drawing as well as poetry.

She plans to attend Holyoke Community College for two to four years, majoring in the field of Commercial Art.

Barbara hopes to attend the High School of Commerce because she wanted a business background. In case she has difficulties seeking her career, she will be able to use the skills she acquired while at Commerce.

The best of luck is extended to Barbara for the years to come.

Bruce Goalsby, our super Class Vocalist, has been singing in a group called "Secret". Bruce began singing with this group 3 years ago and has been with them ever since. Bruce is not only a terrific singer, but he is also a good athlete. He has played on the Commerce basketball team during his junior and senior years.

After graduation, Bruce plans to continue his musical education at HCC. Bruce's feet are on the ground when it comes to all the high notes he'll be hitting in the future. We wish him the best of luck.

Dynamic Sue Timmerman leads a very full life. After Sue finishes her day in school, you can find her hard at work at Caldor's. Although Sue has a very busy schedule, she still has time to write poetry. Writing poetry is one of her favorite pastimes.

A year after Sue graduates from Commerce, she plans to attend WNEC for four years, majoring in the field of Fashion Merchandising. Sue is still undecided on what she will do after college.

Sue is wished the best of luck from her fellow classmates at Commerce.

Class Musician. Kevin Dodds, is an extremely talented person. He plays the trumpet, piano and drums. Kevin's favorite instrument is the trumpet. He has been playing the trumpet for eight years.

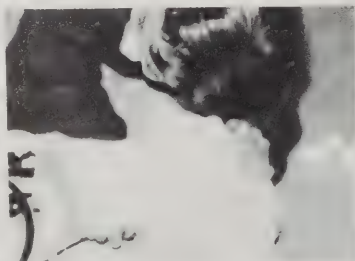

Kevin also keeps busy with his job. He was appointed one of the assistant managers at Stop and Shop.

Upon graduation Kevin intends to join the Marines for four years. After his service, he plans to become an electrical engineer for which he is preparing by taking trigonometry at Classical High School. Kevin has his goals in sight and we are sure he will achieve each one.
